

FISCAL NOTE

No significant fiscal or personnel impact.

The bill would require no additional funds for the State Construction Department. The bill would allow the Department to allocate positions and costs within an operations division that are currently shared between the state construction management and school facilities divisions.