

HOUSE BILL NO. HB0079

Title insurers and agents.

Sponsored by: Representative(s) Court

A BILL

for

1 AN ACT relating to title insurance; specifying records
2 retention policy for title agents and title insurers;
3 specifying duties of title agents during closing
4 transactions; and providing for an effective date.

6 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

8 Section 1. W.S. 26-23-319 is amended to read:

10 26-23-319. Title agents; records; duties.

11

12 (a) A title agent shall keep appropriate records of 13 each transaction related to title insurance business.
14 Records under this section shall include appointment
15 calendars, notary records, correspondence, email, telephone
16 logs and messages, books of account and records and

1 vouchers pertaining to any business transacted under this
2 article. A copy of all records maintained by a title agent
3 under this subsection shall be retained by the title
4 insurer that appointed the title agent for the purposes of 5 the transaction for at least fifteen (15) years following
6 the date of the transaction. All records shall be
7 maintained in a manner that the commissioner may readily
8 ascertain from time to time whether the title agent has 9 complied with all applicable provisions of this article.

10
11 (b) The commissioner, at any time during normal
12 business hours, may examine, audit and inspect books and 13 records maintained by title agents and title insurers under 14 this article.

15
16 (c) A title agent shall present and discuss all
17 documents related to the transaction with all parties
18 during each closing transaction. The documents presented
19 shall include any document that is required to complete the 20 transaction pursuant to federal or state law, any forms
21 required by any lender or title insurer involved in the 22 transaction and any easement or other document related to
23 the transaction that will be recorded before the title

1 transfer is recorded. The title agent shall not present any
2 portion of a document that contains confidential or
3 privileged information.

5 Section 2. This act is effective July 1, 2018.
