9
10 The clerk shall make a trial docket ~~on the first day of each term,~~ 11 on which shall appear all cases in which the issues have been 12 joined. The cases shall be set for trial in the order in which 13 they stand on the appearance docket. The clerk shall not place
14 upon the trial docket any case in which nothing remains to be done
15 except to execute an order for the sale of real or personal 16 property, and to distribute the proceeds as directed by the order, 17 but if it becomes necessary, the case may be redocketed upon the 18 application of either party, whereupon it shall stand in all
19 respects as if it had remained on the docket.
