

Page 3-line 23

After "study." insert "The commission shall only disqualify a recommended instream flow segment from further study under this subsection if the commission determines that the instream flows under consideration would adversely affect any Wyoming water development program project or private water project that is addressed during the public meeting and that is implemented or likely to be implemented within thirty (30) months of the date the application was filed under subsection (b) of this section.". HICKS