"(c) Upon approval of the Gillette college community college district by the electors, the following shall apply to the formation of the Gillette college community college district and the transition from the Northern Wyoming community college district:

(i) Following the election of the board, the boards of the Gillette college community college district and the Northern Wyoming community college district shall jointly adopt a plan on the transition of students, employees and any other services or functions from the Northern Wyoming community college district to the Gillette college community college district pursuant to agreements with the Northern Wyoming community college district or other applicable entities. Agreements under this paragraph shall be based on the actual demonstrated expenses of the Northern Wyoming community college district or other applicable entities related to the transition;

(ii) The community college commission shall review the plan adopted under paragraph (i) of this subsection, any agreements necessary to implement the plan and the budgets of the community college districts to ensure that the transition process adequately protects the interests of students and is consistent with the statewide college system strategic plan;

(iii) During each year of any transition period under this subsection, the Northern Wyoming community college district shall continue to receive the allocation for both districts from the funding allocation model implemented by the community college commission, until such time that the Gillette college community college district receives institutional accreditation.".
