

FISCAL NOTE

The fiscal impact to the judicial system is indeterminable due to an unknown number of cases.

There is no other significant fiscal or personnel impact to the Attorney General's Office, Department of Administration and Information, State Construction Department, Department of Transportation, Department of Education, University of Wyoming, or the Community College Commission.

The Community College Commission, however, does indicate that this bill would have a significant fiscal or personnel impact on the individual community college districts. This fiscal or personnel impact is indeterminable.
