(D) "Mandatory control level RBC" means the product of seven-tenths (.7) and the authorized control level RBC.

(x) "RBC plan" means a comprehensive financial plan containing the elements specified in W.S. 26-48-203(b). If the commissioner rejects the RBC plan, and it is revised by the health organization, with or without the commissioner's recommendation, the plan shall be called the "revised RBC plan";

(xi) "RBC report" means the report required in W.S. 26-48-202;

(xii) "Total adjusted capital" means the sum of:

(A) A health organization's statutory capital and surplus as determined in accordance with the statutory accounting applicable to the annual financial statements required to be filed under W.S. 26-3-123 or 26-34-110; and

(B) Such other items, if any, as the RBC instructions may provide.

26-48-202. Risk-based capital reports.

(a) A domestic health organization shall, annually on or prior to March 1, prepare and submit to the commissioner a report of its RBC levels as of the end of the calendar year just ended, in a form and containing information as required by the RBC instructions. In addition, every domestic health organization shall file its RBC report:

(i) With the NAIC in accordance with the RBC instructions; and

(ii) With the insurance commissioner in any state in which the health organization is authorized to do business, if the insurance commissioner has notified the health organization of its request in writing, in which case the health organization shall file its RBC report not later than the later of:

(A) Fifteen (15) days from the receipt of notice to file its RBC report with that state; or

(B) March 1.

(b) A health organization's RBC shall be determined in accordance with the formula set forth in the RBC instructions and this article. The formula shall take the following into account, and may adjust for the covariance between the following which are determined in each case by applying the factors in the manner set forth in the RBC instructions:

(i) Asset risk;

(ii) Credit risk;

(iii) Underwriting risk; and

(iv) All other business risks and other relevant risks as are set forth in the RBC instructions.

(c) If a domestic health organization files an RBC report which in the judgment of the commissioner is inaccurate, the commissioner shall adjust the RBC report to correct the inaccuracy and shall notify the health organization of the adjustment. The notice shall contain a statement of the reasons for the adjustment. An RBC report as so adjusted is referred to as an "adjusted RBC report".

26-48-203. Company action level event.

(a) "Company action level event" means any of the following events:

(i) The filing of an RBC report by a health organization that indicates that the health organization's total adjusted capital is greater than or equal to its regulatory action level RBC but less than its company action level RBC;

(ii) Notification by the commissioner to the health organization of an adjusted RBC report that indicates an event in paragraph (i) of this subsection, provided the health organization does not challenge the adjusted RBC report under W.S. 26-48-207; or

(iii) If a health organization challenges an adjusted RBC report that indicates the event in paragraph (i) of this subsection under W.S. 26-48-207, the notification by the commissioner to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge.

(b) In the event of a company action level event, the health organization shall prepare and submit to the commissioner an RBC plan which shall:

(i) Identify the conditions that contribute to the company action level event;

(ii) Contain proposals of corrective actions that the health organization intends to take and that would be expected to result in the elimination of the company action level event;

(iii) Provide projections of the health organization's financial results in the current year and at least the two (2) succeeding years, both in the absence of proposed corrective actions and giving effect to the proposed corrective actions, including projections of statutory balance sheets, operating income, net income, capital and surplus and RBC levels. The projections for both new and renewal business may include separate projections for each major line of business and separately identify each significant income, expense and benefit component;

(iv) Identify the key assumptions impacting the health organization's projections and the sensitivity of the projections to the assumptions; and

(v) Identify the quality of, and problems associated with, the health organization's business, including but not limited to its assets, anticipated business growth and associated surplus strain, extraordinary exposure to risk, mix of business and use of reinsurance, if any, in each case.

(c) The RBC plan shall be submitted:

(i) Within forty-five (45) days of the company action level event; or

(ii) If the health organization challenges an adjusted RBC report under W.S. 26-48-207, within forty-five (45) days after notification to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge.

(d) Within sixty (60) days after the submission by a health organization of an RBC plan to the commissioner, the commissioner shall notify the health organization whether the RBC plan shall be implemented or is, in the judgment of the commissioner, unsatisfactory. If the commissioner determines the RBC plan is unsatisfactory, the notification to the health organization shall set forth the reasons for the determination, and may set forth proposed revisions which will render the RBC plan satisfactory, in the judgment of the commissioner. Upon notification from the commissioner, the health organization shall prepare a revised RBC plan, which may incorporate by reference any revisions proposed by the commissioner, and shall submit the revised RBC plan to the commissioner:

(i) Within forty-five (45) days after the notification from the commissioner; or

(ii) If the health organization challenges the notification from the commissioner under W.S. 26-48-207, within forty-five (45) days after a notification to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge.

(e) In the event of a notification by the commissioner to a health organization that the health organization's RBC plan or revised RBC plan is unsatisfactory, the commissioner may, subject to the health organization's right to a hearing under W.S. 26-48-207, specify in the notification that the notification constitutes a regulatory action level event.

(f) Every domestic health organization that files an RBC plan or revised RBC plan with the commissioner shall file a copy of the RBC plan or revised RBC plan with the insurance commissioner in any state in which the health organization is authorized to do business if:

(i) The state has an RBC provision substantially similar to W.S. 26-48-208(a); and

(ii) The insurance commissioner of that state has notified the health organization of its request for the filing in writing, in which case the health organization shall file a copy of the RBC plan or revised RBC plan in that state no later than the later of:

(A) Fifteen (15) days after the receipt of notice to file a copy of its RBC plan or revised RBC plan with the state; or

(B) The date on which the RBC plan or revised RBC plan is filed under subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

26-48-204. Regulatory action level event.

(a) "Regulatory action level event" means, with respect to a health organization, any of the following events:

(i) The filing of an RBC report by the health organization that indicates that the health organization's total adjusted capital is greater than or equal to its authorized control level RBC but less than its regulatory action level RBC;

(ii) Notification by the commissioner to a health organization of an adjusted RBC report that indicates the event in paragraph (i) of this subsection, provided the health organization does not challenge the adjusted RBC report under W.S. 26-48-207;

(iii) If the health organization challenges an adjusted RBC report that indicates the event in paragraph (i) of this subsection under W.S. 26-48-207, the notification by the commissioner to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge;

(iv) The failure of the health organization to file an RBC report annually by March 1, unless the health organization has provided an explanation for the failure that is satisfactory to the commissioner and has cured the failure within ten (10) days after the filing date;

(v) The failure of the health organization to submit an RBC plan to the commissioner within the time period set forth in W.S. 26-48-203(c);

(vi) Notification by the commissioner to the health organization that:

(A) The RBC plan or revised RBC plan submitted by the health organization is, in the judgment of the commissioner, unsatisfactory; and

(B) Such notification constitutes a regulatory action level event with respect to the health organization, provided the health organization has not challenged the determination under W.S. 26-48-207.

(vii) If the health organization challenges a determination by the commissioner under paragraph (vi) of this subsection under W.S. 26-48-207, the notification by the commissioner to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the challenge;

(viii) Notification by the commissioner to the health organization that the health organization has failed to adhere to its RBC plan or revised RBC plan, but only if the failure has a substantial adverse effect on the ability of the health organization to eliminate the company action level event in accordance with its RBC plan or revised RBC plan and the commissioner has so stated in the notification, provided the health organization has not challenged the determination under W.S. 26-48-207; or

(ix) If the health organization challenges a determination by the commissioner under paragraph (viii) of this subsection under W.S. 26-48-207, the notification by the commissioner to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the challenge.

(b) In the event of a regulatory action level event the commissioner shall:

(i) Require the health organization to prepare and submit an RBC plan or, if applicable, a revised RBC plan;

(ii) Perform an examination or analysis as he deems necessary of the assets, liabilities and operations of the health organization including a review of its RBC plan or revised RBC plan; and

(iii) Subsequent to the examination or analysis, issue an order specifying such corrective actions as he shall determine are required.

(c) In determining corrective actions, the commissioner may take into account factors he deems relevant with respect to the health organization based upon his examination or analysis of the assets, liabilities and operations of the health organization, including, but not limited to, the results of any sensitivity tests undertaken pursuant to the RBC instructions. The RBC plan or revised RBC plan shall be submitted:

(i) Within forty-five (45) days after the occurrence of the regulatory action level event;

(ii) If the health organization challenges an adjusted RBC report under W.S. 26-48-207 and the challenge is not frivolous in the judgment of the commissioner, within forty-five (45) days after the notification to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge; or

(iii) If the health organization challenges a revised RBC plan under W.S. 26-48-207 and the challenge is not frivolous in the judgment of the commissioner, within forty-five (45) days after the notification to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge.

(d) The commissioner may retain actuaries and investment experts and other consultants necessary in the judgment of the commissioner to review the health organization's RBC plan or revised RBC plan, examine or analyze the assets, liabilities and operations of the health organization and formulate the corrective order with respect to the health organization. The fees, costs and expenses relating to consultants shall be borne by the affected health organization or other party as directed by the commissioner.

26-48-205. Authorized control level event.

(a) "Authorized control level event" means any of the following events:

(i) The filing of an RBC report by the health organization that indicates that the health organization's total adjusted capital is greater than or equal to its mandatory control level RBC but less than its authorized control level RBC;

(ii) The notification by the commissioner to the health organization of an adjusted RBC report that indicates the event in paragraph (i) of this subsection, provided the health organization does not challenge the adjusted RBC report under W.S. 26-48-207;

(iii) If the health organization challenges an adjusted RBC report that indicates the event in paragraph (i) of this subsection under W.S. 26-48-207, notification by the commissioner to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge;

(iv) The failure of the health organization to respond, in a manner satisfactory to the commissioner, to a corrective order, provided the health organization has not challenged the corrective order under W.S. 26-48-207; or

(v) If the health organization has challenged a corrective order under W.S. 26-48-207 and the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the challenge or modified the corrective order, the failure of the health organization to respond, in a manner satisfactory to the commissioner, to the corrective order subsequent to rejection or modification by the commissioner.

(b) In the event of an authorized control level event with respect to a health organization, the commissioner shall:

(i) Take such actions as are required under W.S. 26-48-204 regarding a health organization with respect to which a regulatory action level event has occurred; or

(ii) If the commissioner deems it to be in the best interests of the policyholders and creditors of the health organization and of the public, take any actions as are necessary to cause the health organization to be placed under regulatory control under chapter 28 of this code. In the event the commissioner takes such actions, the authorized control level event shall be deemed sufficient grounds for the commissioner to take action under chapter 28, and the commissioner shall have the rights, powers and duties with respect to the health organization as are set forth in chapter 28. In the event the commissioner takes actions under this paragraph pursuant to an adjusted RBC report, the health organization shall be entitled to such protections as are afforded to health organizations under the provisions of chapter 28 pertaining to summary proceedings.

26-48-206. Mandatory control level event.

(a) "Mandatory control level event" means any of the following events:

(ii) Notification by the commissioner to the health organization of an adjusted RBC report that indicates the event in paragraph (i) of this subsection, provided the health organization does not challenge the adjusted RBC report under W.S. 26-48-207; or

(iii) If the health organization challenges an adjusted RBC report that indicates the event in paragraph (i) of this subsection under W.S. 26-48-207, notification by the commissioner to the health organization that the commissioner has, after a hearing, rejected the health organization's challenge.

(b) In the event of a mandatory control level event, the commissioner shall take such actions as are necessary to place the health organization under regulatory control under chapter 28 of this code. In that event, the mandatory control level event shall be deemed sufficient grounds for the commissioner to take action under chapter 28, and the commissioner shall have the rights, powers and duties with respect to the health organization as are set forth in chapter 28. If the commissioner takes actions pursuant to an adjusted RBC report, the health organization shall be entitled to the protections of chapter 28 pertaining to summary proceedings. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the commissioner may forego action for up to ninety (90) days after the mandatory control level event if the commissioner finds there is a reasonable expectation that the mandatory control level event may be eliminated within the ninety (90) day period.

(a) A health organization shall have the right to an administrative hearing, on a record, at which the health organization may challenge any of the following determinations or actions by the commissioner:

(i) Notification to a health organization by the commissioner of an adjusted RBC report;

(ii) Notification to a health organization by the commissioner that:

(A) The health organization's RBC plan or revised RBC plan is unsatisfactory; and

(B) The notification constitutes a regulatory action level event with respect to the health organization.

(iii) Notification to any health organization by the commissioner that the health organization has failed to adhere to its RBC plan or revised RBC plan and that the failure has a substantial adverse effect on the ability of the health organization to eliminate the company action level event with respect to the health organization in accordance with its RBC plan or revised RBC plan; or

(iv) Notification to a health organization by the commissioner of a corrective order with respect to the health organization.

(b) A health organization seeking a hearing under this section shall notify the commissioner of its request for a hearing within five (5) days after the notification by the commissioner under subsection (a) of this section. Upon receipt of the health organization's request for a hearing, the commissioner shall set a date for the hearing, which shall be no less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of the health organization's request.

26-48-208. Confidentiality; prohibition on announcements; prohibition on use in ratemaking.

(a) All RBC reports, to the extent the information is not required to be set forth in a publicly available annual statement schedule, and RBC plans, including the results or report of any examination or analysis of a health organization performed pursuant to this article and any corrective order issued by the commissioner pursuant to examination or analysis, with respect to a domestic health organization or foreign health organization that are in the possession or control of the department of insurance shall be confidential by law and privileged, shall not be subject to inspection under W.S. 16-4-201 through 16-4-205, shall not be subject to subpoena, and shall not be subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any private civil action. However, the commissioner is authorized to use the documents, materials or other information in the furtherance of any regulatory or legal action brought as a part of the commissioner's official duties.

(b) Neither the commissioner nor any person who received documents, materials or other information while acting under the authority of the commissioner shall be permitted or required to testify in any private civil action concerning any confidential documents, materials or information subject to subsection (a) of this section.

(c) In order to assist in the performance of the commissioner's duties, the commissioner:

(i) May share documents, materials or other information, including the confidential and privileged documents, materials or information subject to subsection (a) of this section, with other state, federal and international regulatory agencies, with the NAIC and its affiliates and subsidiaries and with state, federal and international law enforcement authorities, provided that the recipient agrees to maintain the confidentiality and privileged status of the document, material or other information;

(ii) May receive documents, materials or information, including otherwise confidential and privileged documents, materials or information, from the NAIC and its affiliates and subsidiaries, and from regulatory and law enforcement officials of other foreign or domestic jurisdictions, and shall maintain as confidential or privileged any document, material or information received with notice or the understanding that it is confidential or privileged under the laws of the jurisdiction that is the source of the document, material or information; and

(iii) May enter into agreements governing sharing and use of information consistent with this subsection.

(d) No waiver of any applicable privilege or claim of confidentiality in the documents, materials or information shall occur as a result of disclosure to the commissioner under this section or as a result of sharing as authorized in paragraph (c)(iii) of this section.

(e) Except as otherwise required under the provisions of this article, the making, publishing, disseminating, circulating or placing before the public, or causing,

(a) The provisions of this article are supplemental to any other provisions of the laws of this state, and shall not preclude or limit any other powers or duties of the commissioner under such laws, including, but not limited to, W.S. 26-3-115, 26-3-116, 26-28-101 through 26-28-131, 26-34-121 and 26-34-123.

(b) The commissioner may adopt reasonable rules necessary for the implementation of this article.

(c) The commissioner may exempt from the application of this article a domestic health organization that:

(i) Writes direct business only in this state;

(ii) Assumes no reinsurance in excess of five percent (5%) of direct premium written, and:

(A) Writes direct annual premiums for comprehensive medical business of two million dollars ($2,000,000.00) or less; or

(B) Is a limited health service organization that covers less than two thousand (2,000) lives.

26-48-210. Foreign health organizations.

(a) A foreign health organization shall, upon the written request of the commissioner, submit to the commissioner an RBC report as of the end of the calendar year just ended by the later of:

(i) The date an RBC report would be required to be filed by a domestic health organization under this article; or

(ii) Fifteen (15) days after the request is received by the foreign health organization.

(b) A foreign health organization shall, at the written request of the commissioner, promptly submit to the commissioner a copy of any RBC plan that is filed with the insurance commissioner of any other state.

(c) In the event of a company action level event, regulatory action level event or authorized control level event with respect to a foreign health organization as determined under the RBC statute applicable in the state of domicile of the health organization, or, if no RBC statute is in force in that state, under the provisions of this article, if the insurance commissioner of the state of domicile of the foreign health organization fails to require the foreign health organization to file an RBC plan in the manner specified under that state's RBC statute, or, if no RBC statute is in force in that state, under W.S. 26-48-203, the commissioner may require the foreign health organization to file an RBC plan with the commissioner. In such event, the failure of the foreign health organization to file an RBC plan with the commissioner shall be grounds to order the health organization to cease and desist from writing new insurance business in this state.

(d) In the event of a mandatory control level event with respect to a foreign health organization, if no domiciliary receiver has been appointed with respect to the foreign health organization under the rehabilitation and liquidation statute applicable in the state of domicile of the foreign health organization, the commissioner may make application to the district court of Laramie county as permitted under chapter 28 of this code. The occurrence of 26-48-211. Immunity.

There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action shall arise against, the commissioner or the insurance department or its employees or agents for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this article.

26-48-212. Notices.

All notices by the commissioner to a health organization that may result in regulatory action under this article shall be effective upon dispatch if transmitted by registered or certified mail, or in the case of any other transmission shall be effective upon the health organization's receipt of notice.

Section 2. W.S. 26-28-101(a)(vii) is amended to read:

26-28-101. Definitions.

(a) As used in this chapter:

(vii) "Insurer" means any person, firm, corporation, association or aggregation of persons doing an insurance business and subject to the insurance supervisory authority of, or to liquidation, rehabilitation, reorganization or conservation by the commissioner or the equivalent insurance supervisory official of another state, including health organizations regulated under W.S. 26-48-201 through 26-48-212;
