(b) A conveyance of the surface ownership of real 1 property shall be a conveyance of the pore space in all 2 3 strata below the surface of such real property unless the 4 ownership interest in such pore space previously has been 5 severed from the surface ownership or is explicitly excluded in the conveyance. The ownership of pore space in 6 strata may be conveyed in the manner provided by law for 7 the transfer of mineral interests in real property. 8 No 9 agreement conveying mineral or other interests underlying the surface shall act to convey ownership of any pore space 10 11 in the stratum unless the agreement explicitly conveys that ownership interest. 12

13

No provision of law, including a lawfully adopted 14 (C) rule or regulation, requiring notice to be given to a 15 surface owner, to an owner of the mineral interest, or to 16 17 both, shall be construed to require notice to persons holding ownership interest in any pore space 18 in the underlying strata unless the law specifies notice to such 19 20 persons is required.

21

22 (d) As used in this section, the term "pore space" is 23 defined to mean subsurface space of any size and whether 24 vacant or filled which can be used as storage space for carbon dioxide or other substances injected into the space for storage.

3

4 (e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to 5 change or alter the common law as of the date of the 6 passage of this section as it relates to the rights 7 belonging to, or the dominance of, the mineral estate.

8

9 (f) All instruments which transfer the rights to pore 10 space under this section shall describe the scope of any 11 right to use the surface estate. The owner of any pore 12 space right shall have no right to use the surface estate 13 beyond that set out in a properly recorded instrument.

14

(q) Transfers of pore space rights made after the 15 effective date of this section are null and void at the 16 option of the owner of the surface estate if the transfer 17 instrument does not contain a specific description of the 18 location of the pore space. The validity of pore space 19 rights under this paragraph shall not affect the respective 20 21 liabilities of any party and such liabilities shall operate 22 in the same manner as if the pore space transfer were valid. 23

Section 2. W.S. 34-1-202(e) is amended to read: 3 34-1-202. Creation; conveyance; acceptance and 4 duration. 5

This act shall not alter the law of Wyoming 6 (e) regarding the primacy of the mineral estate and any 7 easement created hereunder shall not limit the right of a 8 9 mineral owner or his lessee to reasonable use of the surface for the purpose of mineral exploration 10 and production unless the owners and lessees of the entire 11 mineral estate and geologic sequestration right are a party 12 13 to the conservation easement or consent to the conservation 14 easement.

Section 3. It is the intent of the legislature to 16 17 clarify the ownership of pore space underlying the surface of the lands and waters of this state. All conveyances of 18 interests in real property on and after the effective date 19 of this act shall be subject to the provisions of this act. 20 21 All conveyances of real property made prior to the effective date of this act shall be construed in accordance 22 with the provisions of this act unless a person claiming an 23 24 ownership interest contrary to the provisions of this act
