

1 Page 20-after line 13 Insert:
2

3 "(n) Permit holders under this article shall have an ongoing
4 obligation to disclose in writing any material change in the
5 information provided in the application to the commission,
6 including:

7
8 (i) Changes to names and contact information;
9

10 (ii) Arrests, convictions, guilty pleas, disciplinary
11 actions or license denials in Wyoming or any other jurisdiction;
12

13 (iii) Any civil action brought against the permit
14 holder; and

15
16 (iv) Any other information specified by rule of the 17 commission.
18

19 (o) If the commission denies an application or intends to 20 revoke or suspend a permit issued under this article, it shall
21 notify the applicant or permittee in writing, stating the grounds
22 for denial, revocation or suspension and informing the person of 23 a right to submit, within not more than thirty (30) days, any
24 additional documentation relating to the grounds for denial,
25 revocation or suspension. Upon receiving any additional 26 documentation, the commission shall reconsider its decision and 27 inform the applicant of its decision within not more than twenty 28 (20) days of the submission of information for reconsideration. A
29 denial of an application or a revocation or suspension of a permit
30 under this article shall be subject to the contested case
31 procedures of the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act.". ELLIS,
32 WASSERBURGER
33