

FISCAL NOTE

The fiscal impact, in the form of decreased revenues from lodging taxes, is indeterminable.

This bill provides an exemption for sales of lodging services to Wyoming residents. According to the Wyoming Department of Revenue, the revenue decrease from the proposed exemption is indeterminable, as the Department of Revenue has no way of determining how many Wyoming residents purchase lodging services in the state.

Prepared by: Dean Temte, LSO Phone: 777-7881
(Information provided by Terri Lucero, Department of Revenue, 777-5220)