Catch Title: Food freedom act amendments.

Subject: Amendments to the food freedom act.

Summary/Major Elements:

- The bill provides that homemade food and drink products, as well as eggs, may be sold to the maximum extent permitted by federal law, and that nothing in the food freedom act should be construed as being more restrictive than applicable federal requirements.
- The act also includes a clarifying change to specify that there are exceptions within the food freedom act to the general requirement that all transactions shall be directly between the seller and informed end consumer.
