Catch Title: Optional municipal tax-election.

Subject: Election dates for an optional municipal sales and use tax.

Summary/Major Elements:

- Current law authorizes the enactment of a municipal sales and use tax of up to one percent (1%) for general revenue for the municipality or for a specific purpose. Current law also provides that this tax must be voted on at a general election. General elections are held the on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November in even numbered years.
- This act removes the requirement that the election for this sales and use tax be a general election and allows the question to be voted on at a primary election, a general election, on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in May or November, or on the Tuesday next following the third Monday in August.
