2 (SF1003S2001/AC) to this line, in subsection
3 (a) amended by that amendment, after "COVID-
4 19 vaccination status" insert ". A health care
5 provider may inquire into whether a person has 6 proof of COVID-19 immunity, a current negative
7 result from a COVID-19 test or a current 8 positive result from a COVID-19 antibody test
9 and may use reasonable accommodation measures
10 imposed through the least restrictive means
11 based on the person's response to the inquiry
12 if necessary to protect the health and safety 13 of patients or of employees who are at 14 increased risk of contracting COVID-19. A
15 health care provider may consider an employee
16 to be nonvaccinated if the employee declines
17 to provide the employee's vaccination status
18 to the health care provider for purposes of 19 determining whether reasonable accommodation
20 measures should be implemented". BITEMAN
