- 10 "(c) Each district shall annually report to the department 11 of education on the progress of each of its schools toward 12 achieving the goal of eighty-five percent (85%) of all students
13 reading at grade level upon completion of the third grade. This 14 report shall include cohort analysis for kindergarten through 15 grade three (3) for those students identified by the screening
16 instruments as having signs of dyslexia or other reading
17 difficulties. The report shall include the percentage of students 18 meeting or exceeding proficiency levels for the annual reporting 19 period. The reporting shall also include the aggregate number of 20 students identified by the screening instruments as having signs
21 of dyslexia or other reading difficulties in addition to listing 22 the evidence based interventions implemented in each district by 23 grade. This report shall include kindergarten through grade three 24 (3) progress toward achieving the goal of eighty-five percent (85%)
25 proficiency in the specific skills known to be predictive of grade
26 three (3) reading proficiency and that are listed in subsection
27 (d) of this section. Grade three (3) reading proficiency shall be 28 determined by the grade three (3) statewide assessment
29 administered pursuant to W.S. 21-2-304(a)(v). Each school not 30 meeting the eighty-five percent (85%) goal specified under this 31 subsection shall submit an improvement plan to the school district,
32 and the school district shall submit an overall improvement plan
33 to the department. At a minimum, each school and district
34 improvement plan shall outline its general strategy for increasing 35 reading proficiency for the next school year and shall specifically 36 address the evidence based program of instruction, assessment and 37 intervention being implemented, the specific training in those 38 programs that reading teachers have received, the student-teacher 39 ratio, the use of certified tutors and the use of instructional
40 facilitators and paraprofessionals in kindergarten through grade
41 three (3) trained in the delivery of the evidence based instruction
42 and intervention program selected by the district."
