Page 2-lines 11 through 18 Delete entirely including the Senate standing committee amendment (SF0103SS001/A) to these lines and insert:

"(b) Instruction on the topics enumerated in this section and any supporting materials shall be consistent with the following principles of individual freedom:

(i) No person is inherently racist, sexist or oppressive, whether consciously or unconsciously, solely by virtue of his race or sex;

(ii) No race is inherently superior to another race;

(iii) No person shall be discriminated against or receive adverse treatment solely or partly on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, disability or sex;

(iv) Meritocracy or traits, including a hard work ethic, are not racist but are fundamental to the right to pursue happiness and to be rewarded for industriousness;

(v) No person, by virtue of his race or sex, bears responsibility for actions committed in the past by other members of the same race or sex;

(vi) No person shall be made to feel discomfort, guilt, anguish or any other form of psychological distress on account of his race;

(vii) Instructional personnel may facilitate discussions and use curricula to address, in an age-appropriate manner, the topics of sexism, slavery, racial oppression, racial segregation and racial discrimination, including topics relating to the enactment and enforcement of laws resulting in sexism, racial oppression, racial segregation and racial discrimination. Classroom instruction and curricula shall not be used to indoctrinate or persuade students to a particular point of view inconsistent with the principles of this subsection or state academic standards.".
