17 (a) As used in this chapter:

18
19 (ii) "Medical assistance" means partial or full payment 20 of the reasonable charges assessed by any authorized provider of 21 the services and supplies enumerated under W.S. 42-4-103 and 22 consistent with limitations and reimbursement methodologies
23 established by the department, which are provided on behalf of a 24 qualified recipient, excluding those services and supplies
25 provided by any relative of the recipient, unless the relative is 26 a family caregiver providing services through a corporation or a 27 limited liability company, which corporation or limited liability 28 company the relative may own, under a home and community based 29 waiver program, or for cosmetic purposes only. "Medical 30 assistance" shall not include payment for the professional 31 services of a licensed pharmacist that result in a chemical
32 abortion;". ZWONITZER, DN
