3       "(c) As a political class, classification or identity,
4 federally recognized Indian tribes and programs, trainings,
5 degrees, classes or endowments related to federally recognized
6 Indian tribes or Indian history, culture, language and traditions,
7 are not diversity, equity and inclusion as defined by this section.
8 Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to federally
9 recognized Indian tribes. For purposes of this section:

10
11           (i) "Federally recognized Indian tribe" means a tribal 12 government and its citizens who have an acknowledged
13 government-to-government relationship with the United States of 14 America;

15
16           (ii) Federally recognized Indian tribes and their 17 citizens shall be considered a political class, classification or 18 identity. Tribes and their members shall not be considered a race
19 or a racial classification." CASE
