9 "(m) A professional or occupational licensing board shall 10 issue a temporary license to a military service member or military 11 spouse after receiving a completed application under this section, 12 but while the application is pending review by the board, if the 13 applicant holds a relevant, active occupational or professional 14 license in good standing from another jurisdiction for not less 15 than three (3) consecutive years. The military service member or 16 military spouse applicant may practice under the temporary license
17 for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days. A board shall not 18 charge a military service member or military spouse any fees for 19 a temporary license under this subsection.". BROWN, L, NICHOLAS
