

FISCAL NOTE

The Attorney General's Office indicated that the bill would require indeterminate additional administrative expenditures.

The Attorney General's Office noted that, due to the mandatory nature of complaint review, the Office may file for injunctive relief or other relief. In addition, the Attorney General's Office indicated that the large class of individuals with statutory standing to bring suit under this bill would require the Office to defend certain actions.

Prepared by: Pierre Chesnais, LSO Phone: 777-7881
(Information provided by April Christensen, Attorney General's Office, 777-7840)