HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO.

Residential property tax value-constitutional amendment.

Sponsored by: Joint Revenue Interim Committee

A JOINT RESOLUTION

for

1 A JOINT RESOLUTION amending the constitution to authorize the
2 legislature to provide for valuation of residential property
3 for purposes of taxation and to make conforming changes to 4 related constitutional provisions.

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WYOMING,
7 two-thirds of all the members of the two houses, voting
8 separately, concurring therein:

10 Section 1. The following proposal to amend the Wyoming
11 Constitution, Article 15, Sections 1, 10 and 11(a), (b) and 12 by creating a new subsection (e) is proposed for submission
13 to the electors of the State of Wyoming at the next general

1 election for approval or rejection to become valid as a part
2 of the Constitution if ratified by a majority of the electors
3 at the election:

5 Article 15, Section 1 Assessment of lands and
6 improvements thereon.

8 All lands and improvements thereon shall be listed for 9 assessment, valued for taxation and assessed separately,
10 provided that residential real property that is valued using
11 a valuation method determined by the legislature may not be 12 required to be valued and assessed separately as determined
13 by the legislature.

15 Article 15, Section 10 Duties of state board of 16 equalization.

18 The duties of the state board shall be to equalize the 19 valuation on all property in the several counties, except for 20 residential real property that is valued using a valuation
21 method determined by the legislature as prescribed by law,
22 and such other duties as may be prescribed by law.

1 Article 15, Section 11 Uniformity of assessment
2 required.

4 (a) All property, except as in this constitution
5 otherwise provided, shall be uniformly valued at its full
6 value as defined by the legislature and as provided in
7 subsections (b) and (e) of this section, in four (4) classes
8 as follows:

10 (b) The legislature shall prescribe the percentage of 11 value which shall be assessed within each designated class.
12 All taxable property shall be valued at its full value as 13 defined by the legislature except residential real property
14 as provided in subsection (e) of this section and agricultural 15 and grazing lands which shall be valued according to the 16 capability of the land to produce agricultural products under 17 normal conditions. The percentage of value prescribed for 18 industrial property shall not be more than forty percent (40%)
19 higher nor more than four (4) percentage points more than the 20 percentage prescribed for residential real property or more
21 than forty percent (40%) higher nor more than four (4)
22 percentage points more than the percentage prescribed for all
23 other property other than minerals.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, residential real property may be valued for purposes of taxation using a valuation method determined by the legislature as prescribed by law.

Section 2. That the Secretary of State shall endorse the following statement on the proposed amendment:

Currently, residential real property is valued for purposes of taxation by determining the fair market value of the residential real property. This constitutional amendment would authorize the Legislature to provide by law for the valuation of residential real property using a valuation method determined by the legislature.
