Welcome to the Wyoming State Capitol. The Capitol is open to the public beginning at 6:30 a.m. during the legislative session and remains open until the last committee meeting has adjourned for the day.

Parking is available on the streets surrounding the Capitol. Be aware of timed parking limits in some areas. The public may also use the state parking lot located at the corner of 25th Street and Pioneer Ave.

Public restrooms and elevators are located on the east and west wings of every floor of the Capitol, except the second floor during the legislative session. Vending machines are located in the Capitol Extension.

Wireless Internet access is available throughout the building using the network “Wyo-Guest.” A password is required.

Structure of the Wyoming Legislature

Introduction
The Wyoming Legislature is a 90-member citizen Legislature, meaning the members elected serve part-time and this is typically not their primary occupation. Wyoming remains one of the few states to have a true part-time citizen Legislature. While the part-time nature of the institution allows members to stay in close contact with their constituents, it also means they do not enjoy the same accommodations provided to full-time legislators in larger states, such as personal staff.

Management Council
• The leadership of the Legislature and the administrative arm of the legislative branch of state government.
• Policymaking body when the Legislature is not in session.
• 13 members representing both parties and consists of legislators in leadership positions.
• After every November General Election in even-numbered years, legislators hold party caucuses to elect legislative leadership for each party for the upcoming biennium (two-year period).
• Appoints the director of the Legislative Service Office.

Senate Leadership
• President
• Vice President
• Majority Floor Leader
• Minority Floor Leader
• Minority Whip
• Minority Caucus Chairman

House Leadership
• Speaker
• Speaker Pro Tempore
• Majority Floor Leader
• Majority Whip
• Minority Floor Leader
• Minority Whip
• Minority Caucus Chairman
Structure of the Wyoming Legislature

Article 3, Section 1 of the Wyoming Constitution states that “the legislative power shall be vested in a Senate and a House of Representatives...” Below are some facts about the current Wyoming Legislature:

Senate
• There are 30 members in the Wyoming Senate.
• There are 27 Republicans and 3 Democrats currently serving.
• Members serve a four-year term.
• Candidates must be at least 25 years old to serve.
• Candidates must be a citizen of the United States and Wyoming and must have resided within the district they wish to represent for at least 12 months preceding the election.
• The President of the Senate is the presiding officer of the Senate.
• Impeachment shall be tried in the Senate.

House of Representatives
• There are 60 members in the Wyoming House of Representatives.
• There are 50 Republicans, 9 Democrats and 1 Independent currently serving.
• Members serve a two-year term.
• Candidates must be at least 21 years old to serve.
• Candidates must be a citizen of the United States and Wyoming and must have resided within the district they wish to represent for at least 12 months preceding the election.
• The Speaker of the House is the presiding officer of the House of Representatives.
• All revenue-raising bills must start in the House.
• The House has the sole power of impeachment (Governor and other state and judicial officers can be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors or malfeasance in office).
Staff for the Wyoming Legislature

Legislative Service Office
Created in 1971 to provide administrative and professional services for the state’s legislative branch of government, the Legislative Service Office (LSO) is the permanent, non-partisan staff for the Wyoming Legislature. The services are performed on a non-partisan basis for both the House and Senate. The LSO Director is employed by, and subject to the direction of the Management Council. Other employees are employed by the LSO Director with approval of the Management Council.

- Legislators in Wyoming do not have individual staff.
- LSO is one of the smallest legislative staff in the country with 45 full-time employees.
- LSO consists of the following staff sections: legal, budget and fiscal, research and program evaluation, information technology and legislative services.
- LSO provides research and bill-drafting services for legislators, including pre-filing and distribution of proposed legislation before legislative sessions.
- Staff is responsible for revision and recompilation of the laws of Wyoming; session laws, journals and digests; and accounting for all legislative expenditures, supplies, and properties.
- Staff prepare administrative rule reviews and reports, conduct oversight evaluations of executive agency programs, conduct fiscal studies and budget analyses and coordinate legislative activities related to school finance.

Session-Only Staff
Session staff for each house work directly for the chief clerk, who is a temporary staff member appointed by the presiding officer in each house. Session staff help to ensure the orderly flow of legislative proceedings during legislative sessions.

Session staff in each house include the chief clerk, assistant chief clerk, staff supervisor, assistant staff supervisor, journal clerk, computer floor team operators, reading clerk, sergeant at arms, doormen, watchmen, telephone receptionist, pages, messengers, committee secretaries, copy clerks, leadership secretary, minority secretary, collators, bill status clerk, clerical assistants and mail clerks.
Legislative Sessions

The Legislature meets in a General Session in odd numbered years, beginning on the second Tuesday of January. The General Session is limited to no more than 40 legislative days. In even numbered years, the Legislature convenes in a Budget Session beginning on the second Monday of February, which typically lasts 20 legislative days. Except for the budget bill, all other bills require a two-thirds vote from the Senate or House for introduction during a Budget Session.

Special sessions may be called at any time by the Governor or the Legislature.

Group Visits during the Session

Scheduling Your Visit

When coming to the Capitol to observe the legislative session with a large group (generally 10 people or more), please schedule your visit in advance by emailing Legislative Information Officer Riana Davidson: Riana.Davidson@wyoleg.gov. Seating is first-come, first-served in the galleries.

If possible, please split the group in half between the Senate and House Chamber, rotating each group halfway through your visit. For teachers bringing school groups, please ensure enough chaperons are present to accommodate both groups.

Gathering Spaces

There are no large gathering spaces in the Capitol to eat lunch or to convene a meeting. For available locations in the Capitol Extension, please contact Cori Phelps, Department of Administration: (307) 777-7768 or Cori.Phelps1@wyo.gov.

The Capitol Extension may be accessed from the north side of the Capitol’s garden level. This area houses six public meeting rooms, large auditorium, a student learning and visitors center, the Capitol Club and media center. A number of conference rooms and restrooms are also in this area.
House Seating Chart
Order of Business During the Session

The Senate and House generally follow the same “order of business” each legislative day (the order of business may change as necessary for efficient management of business):

- a. Roll call
- b. Prayer by the chaplain
- c. Journal committee report
- d. Messages from the Governor or the other house
- e. Unfinished business
- f. Introduction, reading and reference of bills
- g. Bills of other house on first reading
- h. Reports from standing committees
- i. Reports from select committees
- j. Bills on second reading
- k. Bills on third reading and final passage
- l. Consideration of bills on general file
- m. Special orders and committee announcements
- n. Adjournment

10 Steps to the Legislative Process

A general summary of the legislative process in Wyoming for a bill to become law is below. A bill can fail or be amended at any point during these steps.

1. A bill is drafted by LSO for a committee or individual member.
2. The bill title is read aloud and assigned to a committee by the presiding officer. (A 2/3 vote is required during a Budget Session.)
3. The committee hears the bill and votes whether to: Pass, Do Not Pass, or Pass with Amendments.
4. Members in the Chamber of Origin debate the bill for the first time during Committee of the Whole and vote to support or oppose.
5. The bill is debated and voted on in the Chamber of Origin during second and third readings.
6. If passed by the Chamber of Origin, the bill moves to the second Chamber and the process above is repeated.
7. If passed by the second Chamber with no changes, the bill is sent directly to the Governor for his signature or veto.
8. If the Senate and House versions of the bill differ, a Joint Conference Committee is appointed to reconcile the differences.
9. If a compromise is reached, the bill is sent to the Governor.
10. The Governor can sign or veto the bill. The bill can also become law without the Governor’s signature. The Legislature can override a Governor’s veto with a 2/3 vote by the House and Senate.
Amendment Naming Conventions
Names are applied to an amendment once approved by the sponsor. The name tells the reader when and where an amendment was acted upon and its disposition.

Many combinations of letters and numbers are possible and cover all situations of amendment actions. Sample amendment SF0015H2001/ACE is explained below:

HB: House Bill Number
SF: Senate File Number
HJ: House Joint Resolution Number
SJ: Senate Joint Resolution Number
H: House Amendment
S: Senate Amendment
W: Committee of the Whole Amendment
2: Second Reading Amendment  3: Third Reading Amendment
001: Sequence of Amendment (amendment number one)
A: Adopted  F: Failed  C: Corrected Copy
E: Amendment to an Engrossed Bill

Substitute Bills
If committee amendments are extensive, a committee may request a substitute bill. The substitute bill incorporates all committee amendments into a new version of the bill and is presented as an amendment on colored paper. If the committee amendment is adopted by the body in Committee of the Whole all further amendments to the bill are made to the substitute bill.

Engrossed Bills
In the top right corner of a bill that has passed the first house with amendments, you will find the word “ENGROSSED” under the LSO number. This indicates all passed amendments from the first house are incorporated into the bill. Once the bill is engrossed and distributed from the original house, hard copies of House Bills are printed on green paper and Senate Files are printed on blue paper.
Second Floor Lobby Decorum Policies

During the legislative sessions, the lobbies on the second floor outside the Senate and House Chambers are designated areas for the public to speak with legislators, when they are available. If you would like to speak with a legislator, please fill out a lobby note form, which is located in each lobby. Indicate the member you would like to speak to and the matter you wish to discuss. Be mindful that members may not always be able to leave the Chamber to meet with you. If you need to leave, please send in another note advising the member that you are leaving.

• Do not block doorways or the route to the Chamber.
• No demonstrations are allowed.
• Do not react to debate or voting on the floor in any way to signal approval or disapproval of floor action.
• Signs, banners, placards and other display materials are prohibited.
• Legislative staff will not store belongings or materials.
• Laptop computers and hand-held electronic devices may be used, as long as the device’s volume is turned off.

• Materials may only be distributed to legislators on the floor in accordance with each Chamber’s floor distribution policy.
• Handouts distributed to all members on the floor must be signed by a Representative or Senator for their respective bodies. Obtaining the signature before production is encouraged. Handouts should be dropped off for distribution in the House and Senate third floor lobbies.

All deliveries must be received and inspected by Highway Patrol from the loading dock located at Carey Ave. and 25th Street. When you arrive at the dock please call WHP at 307-777-5555. The loading dock is the large door located on the right.
Third Floor Gallery Decorum Policies

The galleries on the third floor are designed for visitors to observe legislative floor proceedings in the Senate and House galleries. Outside of the galleries on the third floor is where the public may provide or obtain handouts or receive other information during the legislative session. Seating in the gallery is first-come, first served. While seated in the galleries, visitors are required to follow the policies below to preserve the order and decorum of the legislative institution as enforced by the sergeants-at-arms at the direction of the presiding officers.

- Visitors should remain quiet and seated at all times, unless otherwise directed by the presiding officer. If no seating is available, stand quietly in the back.
- Do not visually or audibly communicate with anyone on the floor.
- Do not react to debate or voting to signal approval or disapproval of floor action.
- Signs, banners, placards and other display materials are prohibited.
- Legislative staff will not store belongings or materials.
- No demonstrations are allowed.
- Do not lean on the glass or put any object on the glass.
- Do not consume food or beverages.
- Do not block doorways or impede the ability to move through the galleries.
- Laptop computers and hand-held electronic devices may be used, as long as the device’s volume is turned off.
- Do not conduct a verbal conversation on a cellular telephone.
- Individuals may take photographs as long as it does not disrupt the proceedings.
- Recording of the proceedings is permitted, as long as it does not disrupt the body and does not obstruct the view of people in the gallery.
What is the role of a committee

A great deal of the Legislature’s work is accomplished year round through the efforts of legislative committees. Each legislator serves on several different committees.

Standing Session Committees
There are 12 permanent parallel committees in the Wyoming Senate and House of Representatives. These committees are called “standing” committees. Standing committees meet during legislative sessions to review bills, hear testimony and recommend action on legislation for the consideration of the full body of the Senate or House. These committees meet before and after the daily floor sessions and during Noon recess. These committees generally consist of nine members in the House and five members in the Senate. All legislation being considered during session is assigned by the presiding officer in the Senate or House to one of these committees for review and recommendation before being considered on the floor by the full body of the Senate or House.

Joint Interim Committees
In the interim—the period between sessions—the standing committees in each body, with the exception of the Journal and Rules committees, merge to form joint interim committees. Joint interim committees study topics are assigned by Management Council. Some committee chairmen may create sub-committees to address specified topics assigned to their joint interim committees. These committees often meet throughout the state.

Other Legislative Committees and Task Forces
In addition to the 12 permanent joint interim committees, members also serve on a variety of select committees and task forces during the interim. Some of these select committees are permanent entities authorized in statute, some are approved through legislation for a time-limited basis to address an identified issue or concern to the Legislature, and others may be authorized by the Management Council.

Who appoints committee members and chairmen?
At the beginning of each biennium the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House appoint membership and chairmen for each committee.

How many members serve on a committee?
- 14 Members: Five Senators and Nine Representatives
- Two chairmen: One Senator and One Representative
- 12 JAC Members: Five Senators and Seven Representatives

Where do committees meet?
During session
The standing committees meet before and after the daily session of the Senate and House and during the Noon recess. See page 22 for the committee meeting schedule.

During interim
Committees meet across the state, in various locations, so all Wyoming residents can participate in the legislative process.

How can I become informed about committee meetings?
All of the committee meeting schedules are on the Legislature’s website at: www.wyoleg.gov

You can also receive the committee meeting notices electronically through the Legislature’s email subscription service, available on the Legislature’s website.
What to know while you are attending

Protocol for attending a committee meeting
1. Sign the official meeting attendance sheet.

2. During public comment, if you would like to address the committee, you will be recognized and called on by the chairman.

3. After the chairman has recognized you, please stand and address the chairman (i.e., “Mr./Madam Chairman”). Clearly state your name and the organization you represent when applicable.

4. All comments, questions, and responses must flow through the chairman by addressing the chairman each time you wish to speak.

If you want to provide written materials to the committee
Fill out the committee handout form when you arrive at the meeting. Give the form and a copy of your handout to the committee staff. Bring enough copies of your handout for the committee members, audience and staff.

You can also e-mail an electronic copy to: legdocs@wyoleg.gov. Include the committee name, meeting date, document author, and document provider.

What is the order of business in a committee meeting?
The agenda for each committee meeting can be found on the Legislature’s website at: www.wyoleg.gov

• If you wish to record or take photographs during the committee meeting you need to advise the chairman in advance of the meeting.

• If you plan to use large video or audio equipment, you will need to obtain advance approval from the committee chairman regarding the location of the equipment.

How do I make an effective presentation to the committee?
• Prepare a handout with a summary of your points, before you begin, hand out all of the copies to the chairman.

• Be brief and don’t repeat what another speaker has said. If your statement is similar to previous comments, you may simply state that you agree with a previous speaker.

Meeting Room Locations

Committee rooms are not dedicated to a specific committee. It will be important to note which room meetings are taking place in, as committee’s meeting rooms may vary from day to day. Six public meeting rooms are located in the Capitol Extension and two meeting rooms are on the first floor in the Capitol’s west wing. Meetings may also be held in the Historic Supreme Court on the second floor of the Capitol. The Joint Appropriations Committee meeting room is located on the third floor of the Capitol.
