  - Have members wrestle with what they really want from an assessment and/or assessment system
    - Assessment design is a good example of striving for optimization under often significant constraints and requirements

Goals for the Final Report

- Obviously reflect the deliberations and recommendations of the Task Force
- Similar to the 2012 accountability report, be written to support legislation and/or amendments to statutes
- Provide a solid framework for WDE in drafting an RFP or RFPs for Wyoming's subsequent assessment system
- Questions? Comments?
